

PRESS RELEASE

BURSA-LISTED DAMANSARA REALTY
SUBSIDIARY METRO PARKING SECURES
RM56.6 MILLION FIVE-YEAR CONTRACT FROM SINGAPORE SPORTS COUNCIL

KUALA LUMPUR, 13 July 2017 – Bursa-listed Damansara Realty Berhad (“DBhd” or the “Group”) announced today that its wholly-owned Metro Parking (M) Sdn Bhd (“Metro Parking”) has won a SGD18.14 million (approximately RM56.6 million) contract to operate and manage car parks for the Singapore Sports Council’s (“SSC”) Sport Centres for five years starting 1 September.

Metro Parking (Singapore) Pte Ltd (“MPS”) is a 70%-owned subsidiary of Metro Parking. The contract will contribute to the Group’s revenue for the financial year ending 31 December 2017 (“FY2017”).

The SSC is a statutory board under the Ministry of Community Development, Youth and Sports of the Singapore Government. It is the governing body for all matters related to sports, including enhancing and supporting the development of capabilities and standards in coaching and Olympic training. SSC also regularly organises activities to boost local involvement in sports, exercise and healthy living.

Mr. Brian Iskandar Zulkarim, DBhd’s Group Chief Executive Officer, said: “We are elated by this contract which underscores the track record of our parking subsidiary, even outside Malaysia. Metro Parking is an important cash-generating component of our Integrated Facilities Management division. We hope to offer parking services to IFM clients which do not currently use Metro Parking.”

Mr. Abdull Jalil Pandi, Managing Director of Metro Parking, said: “This contract win is a validation of our ability to deliver an efficient and well-managed parking solution to such a prestigious client in Singapore. We thank the SSC for its faith and confidence in Metro Parking.”
