KUANTAN, PAHANG, 17 July 2017 – In the spirit of giving during this Raya season, Damansara Realty Berhad (“DBhd” or the “Group”) celebrated 37 underprivileged children from Rumah Anak Yatim Permata Camar, last Saturday at a Hari Raya Open House hosted by its property division at Damansara Hills Kuantan, Pahang.

37 children, all boys aged eight to 17, were treated to a variety of scrumptious Raya delicacies of lemang, rendang, nasi impit, kuah kacang and mee jawa which then followed by ‘Duit Raya’ giving by DBhd’s Group Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Brian Iskandar Zulkarim.

“Our communities are important to us and we are delighted to have the children of Rumah Anak Yatim Permata Camar today. Giving back to the community is very much a part of our DNA and we hope the children would have a great time celebrating Raya together with us,” Mr. Brian added.

This event is part of the Group’s on-going Corporate Social Responsibility programme which recognises and support communities where DBhd operates in. Rumah Anak Yatim Permata Camar, a non-government organisation, was established in 2004 in Kuantan, Pahang.

DBhd's corporate social responsibility programme also includes initiatives that are related to communities, employees, environment, and quality.
